Women’s History Month

We’re celebrating Women’s History Month with the Office of Multicultural Education and Initiatives (MEI). We’re recognizing women from various backgrounds and cultures who have been pioneers throughout history. Find these great resources and more out on display in the library lobby. You can also learn more about MEI and different women’s organizations on campus!

Edible Book Festival

Win a Kindle Fire!

Share your love of books and food for a chance to win a Kindle Fire and other great prizes! Buhl Library and the Department of Communication and Visual Arts is hosting an Edible Book Festival on Friday April 1st in the Rare Book Room from 7:30pm—9pm.

All entries must be literary themed and edible. They will be on display in the Rare Book Room during the event to be judged and then eaten. Judges will declare winners based on creativity and visual appeal and attendees will have a chance to vote for their favorite.

All faculty, staff and students are welcome and encouraged to participate. You may work as individuals or in teams. Participants must register by March 16th. For those not wishing to participate don’t forget to stop by on April 1st to see and taste what great creations the GCC community makes! There will also be snacks, drinks and music. We hope to see you there!

For more information and the history behind the Edible Book Festival click here. Need inspiration for your creations? Check-out these great examples. For any questions please contact Megan.

Drop-in Sessions

Need Research help on the go?

Librarians, Kim and Megan will be in the HAL lobby:
- Monday 3/7 from 1:30 - 3:30pm
- Tuesday 3/15 from 2 - 4:15pm
- Wednesday 3/30 from 1:30 – 4pm

to help you with your research and citation questions. Stop by before or after class, no appointment needed!

Please note that events and notices throughout the month will be posted as announcements and banners on myGCC.