Edible Book Festival

Stop by the Edible Book Festival tonight from 7:30 - 9pm in the Rare Book Room on the ground floor of Henry Buhl Library! See the edible creations submitted by the campus community. Help pick the peoples’ choice winner. Free food and refreshments will also be available. For more information and the history behind the Edible Book Festival click here. We hope to see you there!

Featured Resource

Supreme Court Yearbook provides valuable in-depth coverage and analysis of every decision from the nation's highest court since the 1989-1990 term. Includes overviews of Supreme court terms from 1989 – 2009, case summaries, tables and figures on voting patterns and trends in constitutional law, biographies and more.

Help Wanted

Join our team in the library! Apply for a student worker position for the 2016 - 2017 school year. Pick up an application at the front desk in the library.

On Display this Month

Christian Writer’s Conference
This year the college will be hosting Malcolm Guite, a literary scholar, priest and poet as the featured speaker at this years conference. We are featuring several books by Guite as well as resources on topics that will be covered during lectures and chapel. Stop in to learn more and mark your calendars for the Christian Writer’s Conference on April 7th—9th.

Business Plan Competition
This month we’re featuring resources on small businesses, business plans and entrepreneurship for the upcoming Business Plan Competition at the end of April. We will feature some great resources on display as well as information about The Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation. Don’t forget to check-out the finalists on 4/29!

Autism Awareness Month

April is Autism Awareness Month and to celebrate we are collecting supplies for an Autistic Support & Life Skills Classroom in the New Wilmington Area School District. Look for the donation list in the library lobby and the Curriculum Library. Select an item from the list and bring your donation back to either library before April 29th. Every item donated will earn you an entry to win a prize basket.

Upcoming Events

Therapy dogs are stopping by on Study Day this semester from 1 - 4pm. Come say hi to Lenya, Bela, Beau, Cookie, Noah and Macy!

http://hbl.gcc.edu @ Refdesk@gcc.edu 724.458.2047