Edible Book Festival

Who said you can’t have fun and play with your food?

April 5th Noon - 2PM Breen STU Great Room

Sponsored by Buhl Library & Communication & Visual Arts Department

We’re calling all book lovers, foodies and bakers to participate in an event we’re hosting with the Communication & Visual Arts Department in April called the Edible Book Festival. It is a contest combining a love of books and food to raise money for the Food for Kids Backpack Project. We are trying to spread the word about the event and encourage individuals, groups and campus organizations to participate. All money raised will go to help local kids in Grove City. There is also the chance to win some great prizes from the Bookstore and the Gedunk. Visit the event registration page to learn more and sign up today!

Bake Sale

Monday March 20th & Tuesday March 21st
Breen Student Union 11am - 4:30pm

Buhl Library will be having a bake sale to raise money for a local Autistic Support Classroom in Sharpsville PA for Autism Awareness Month. There will be a selection of tasty treats for sale including cookies, candy, brownies, cupcakes and gluten-free items. Stop early for the best selection!

Featured Displays

Women’s History Month

Stop in the library this month for books featuring this year’s theme from the National Women’s History Project “Trailblazing Women in Labor and Business.” We’re featuring books on the history of women in the business field and inspiring stories of business women and entrepreneurs from across the world. Check-out this display in the library lobby!

Foreign Films

Looking for something to watch for your next movie night? Stop in and check-out our foreign film display! Browse our featured titles in the library lobby. Browse over 100 more titles online!

Spring Break

Don’t forget to grab an audiobook or two before you head out on Friday. Stop by and browse our collection in the library lobby!