Stockings for Soldiers

Buhl Library is helping Huff Funeral Home in Franklin, Pa collect Christmas stockings filled with small items for local area veterans. These items include personal care products, candy and winter accessories. For a full list of items please click here.

Buhl Library will provide the stocking. If you would like to donate items please fill out this form and specify how many stockings you would like to fill. CLP credit will be offered to Greek life and housing groups. The deadline to request stockings is December 8th.

Christmas Movies

We have Christmas movies out on display in the library lobby! Stop in for all your favorites, grab some hot cocoa and have a Christmas movie night!

Therapy Dogs

Are you feeling the stress of finals coming up? Come to the library on Study Day from 1 - 4pm to pet a therapy dog. There will be dogs of all shapes and sizes including our newest volunteer, a white toy poodle named Louie from 1 - 2:30.

Borrow Books over Break

Did you know you can check-out books over Christmas break? Browse our Christmas display or borrow something from our leisure reading or new book collection. These items can be taken home over Christmas break as well as audio books. Stop in and browse in the library lobby.

On our Christmas book display this year you will find several gift wrapped Christmas books. Each book has a gift tag with a few words that give a clue as to what the book is about. You won’t know what you’ve borrowed until you take it home and unwrap it. We hope that you’ll stop by and check-out our display and unwrap a book for yourself to enjoy this holiday season.
